

THE DAILY COMMONWEALTH.

VOL. 10.

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY, MAY 23, 1861.

NO. 163.

THE TRI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH
Will be published every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, by
A. G. HODGES & COMPANY,
At FOUR DOLLARS PER ANNUM, payable in advance.

THE WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH, a large mammoth sheet, is published every Tuesday morning at TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM, in advance.
Our terms for advertising, either in the Tri-Weekly or Weekly Commonwealth, will be as liberal as in any of the newspapers published in the west.

The Frankfort Commonwealth.
A. G. HODGES & CO., PROPRIETORS.
J. H. JOHNSON, Editor.

The Proprietors of the Commonwealth, grateful for the generous patronage which has been bestowed upon them, are determined to furnish their patrons a journal which shall be unexcelled in any of the departments which comprise a first class newspaper.

Published at the Capital of the State, it will be enabled to furnish its readers with the latest intelligence of the actions of the higher courts and of the various departments of the State. It will also contain the latest telegraphic news of stirring events, and also of the New York, Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans markets.

In politics the Commonwealth will be conservative, occupying a middle and antagonistic ground in reference to the two extremes. The old parties broken up, and old issues virtually dead, the vital question at present is Union or disunion. The Commonwealth is for the Union, believing it to be the greatest safeguard for our rights, as well as our most effective auxiliary in our efforts to obtain redress for our wrongs. Its conductors do not regard disunion as a remedy for any of the wrongs of the South, but rather an aggravation. It will contend for the equality of the States in the Union, and for the absolute non-interference by Congress with the domestic affairs of the States and Territories.

We shall aim to make the Commonwealth an acceptable and appropriate fireside companion. It will contain selections from the choicest literature of the day, prose, poetry, &c.

The Weekly will be printed on extra double medium paper, in new and beautiful type.
Terms, in advance, for the Tri-Weekly, $4 per annum.
Terms, for the Weekly $2 per annum.

NOW READY.

A Practical Treatise for the use of Justices of the Peace, Constables, Sheriffs, Jailers, and Coroners in Kentucky.

By RICHARD H. STANTON, MAYSVILLE, KY.

THIS NEW WORK, WHICH HAS been prepared with unusual diligence and care by the author, is intended to be a complete and perfect guide to Justices of the Peace, and the other officers named above, in the discharge of their respective duties under the laws of the state. Its arrangement is such, that while it presents to the officer a full view of the law which he may be called upon to enforce, whether civil or criminal, it affords him such complete and accurate instructions as to the practical manner of discharging his duties, in each particular case, that it will be almost impossible for the least informed among them to go astray.

Every necessary form which a Justice of the Peace, or other officer may require in the course of his official duties, will be found in its appropriate place in the work; and the instructions are so full, perspicuous and clear, that it will be found an invaluable official companion to those for whom the treatise is intended, and a highly useful work to the legal profession, and all others having business with those officers. The author has spared no labor to make it just such a work as is now most needed by the class of officers whose duties are so fully and clearly explained, and his well known accuracy and success will commend it to the hearty patronage of all persons in Kentucky concerned in the administration of the law.

The work contains six hundred and fifty octavo pages, is printed on fine paper, and with large, clear type, and bound in the very best style.

Flag Presentation in Pendleton County.

FALMOUTH, KY., May 18, 1861.

The Falmouth Union Home Guards met to-day for the election of officers, having previously met and adopted a constitution, embodying the sentiment that we owe paramount allegiance to the Constitution of the United States, and the supreme laws of the land made in accordance therewith, and also duties to the State of Kentucky; and pledging ourselves to the mutual protection of ourselves, our country, and property, and the supremacy of the laws; also requiring each member to take the oath prescribed by the Constitution of the United States and that of Kentucky as a test of membership in the company.

About one hundred members having enrolled their names, and taken the oath of allegiance, and having listened to patriotic and eloquent speeches by S. T. Hanser, Esq., and Hon. S. F. Swope, on motion, the company proceeded to the election of officers, with the following result:

Captain, W. A. Warner; First Lieutenant, W. R. Fisk; Second Lieutenant, B. F. Robbins; Third Lieutenant, John Delaney.

The company being informed that the ladies of Falmouth were awaiting its pleasure to present it with a stand of colors, the company was formed in the court house yard, supported by Capt. Mullen's company of State Guards, the Pendleton Grays, when it was presented with an elegant and handsome United States flag as ever floated over a company.

Miss Nora Robbins presented the colors in behalf of the ladies, in a feeling and eloquent style, as follows:

"GENTLEMEN OF THE UNION HOME GUARDS—In behalf of the ladies of Falmouth, I present to you this elegant and beautiful flag.

"It has always been emblematic of our national greatness. Its stars are typical of the thirty-four States that once formed our great, free and prosperous Union. Little did we anticipate six months ago that our political sky would now be overcast with the dark clouds of disunion and of civil war, and that this time-honored insignia of our national freedom and greatness would be trampled in the dust, and insulted in any portion of our free and happy country. Little did we anticipate that an insane effort would be made by any part of our beloved country to substitute another flag with but seven stars, as a badge of revolution, treating the stars and stripes as the banner of a foreign government. But such is the sad reality which we are called upon to witness, and the reflection would not be so gloomy did we not witness in our beloved and chivalrous State, which has always been loyal to the Union, a concerted design on the part of many, to trail the flag of the Union in the dust, and to rear in its place the flag of a Southern Confederacy. It is this unfortunate tendency which has led to your present organization.

You feel it to be your duty, in this hour of peril and threatened ruin, to take a bold stand for your common country, and for the welfare of your beloved Kentucky. May you never falter until all enemies are subdued from whatever quarter they may come! And in the midst of your greatest trials and difficulties, ever bear with you the recollection that the hearts of the ladies of Falmouth are with you. Their hearts fondly cling to the Union—the whole Union. They, therefore, expect every Union man to do his duty.

They never expect to hear of this flag being sullied by a traitors hands, but they look for it long to display its folds to the gentle breeze—over freedom's soil—inspiring from the depths of every patriot's heart the sentiment

"May our Star Spangled Banner forever wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

Col. John E. Records received the colors in behalf of the company, as follows:

"Miss Robbins—I have been selected by the Union Home Guards to receive from your hands, in behalf of the ladies of Falmouth, this elegant, beautiful and magnificent flag. It is impossible for me to find words adequate to express my feelings, or the feelings of those for whom I act. You must look more to our actions than to our words for a full expression of the emotions of our hearts. Well have you said that a few short months ago we could not have anticipated that to-day our beloved and once free and prosperous country, would now be darkened and prostrated by the clouds and hideous tempest of disunion and civil war; little did we anticipate that this noble flag, which has floated in triumph over so many battlefields, and which has ever commanded the respect and admiration of the civilized world, would now be trailed in the dust, and insulted by a portion of that country which owes its present greatness and influence to the very flag it now wantonly insults. Well may you, in common with us, feel a profound interest in this subject. In no country in the world are your rights more fully recognized and protected, than in the United States—by the legislative, judicial, and every social department. This has been the result of the high privileges, and the pure liberty we have enjoyed, and their results a high degree of civility and civilized refinement.

"You are, therefore, deeply interested as well as we, in whatever tends to destroy this liberty and this civilization, and to give us a retrograde step into barbarism. We fully reciprocate your feelings of attachment to the Union, and we will heed your admonitions to do our duty, (though it is now in fearful danger,) yet we will not yield it up until the last plank of hope is wrested from us—Wherever we are, and by whatever circumstances surrounded; whether in the calm sunshine of liberty, peace, and prosperity, or amid the din and clangor of arms, we will ever look back to this scene, and to this banner, and recollecting the source whence it emanated, and there will gush up from the depths of our every heart one deep fountain of sentiment and patriotism which can have vent only through the beautiful language of the poet—

"Flag of the free, hearts only home! By flag hands to valor given; Thy stars have lit this walkin' dome, And all thy hues were born in heaven. Forever float that standard sheet! Where breathes the free but falls before us, With freedom's life beneath our feet, And freedom's banner waving o'er us!"

The exercises were concluded by the ladies singing in good style the star spangled banner, when the two companies formed in line, and marched through the village.

On returning to the court-house a vote of thanks was unanimously tendered the ladies.

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to furnish the Cincinnati Enquirer and Frankfort Commonwealth copies of the proceedings, and request them to publish, and the other Union papers to copy them.

A. L. BURKE, Secretary.

THE CROPS.—We are informed by those who are posted, that with a few more weeks of good seasonable weather, the crop of wheat will exceed anything ever heard of in this country for these many years. As far as we are able to judge, the prospects are the best we have seen for some time.

[Franklin Express.]

We hear some complaint among farmers of rust and the fly in their wheat. No serious injury has, however, as yet been done, and we trust that the present mild and sunny weather will mature our luxuriant wheat crops without extended damage.

From every quarter we hear the most cheering prospects of an excellent wheat crop. Wheat is heavy, fine, promises an immense yield.

Our farmers are complaining of cut-worms and army-worms. In every locality they are doing a vast deal of mischief. Many heavy planters have had to plow up and replant their entire crops.—Bowling Green Gazette.

LIFE PILLS AND PHENIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINES have now been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing varieties of human diseases in which the VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES are well known to be infallible.

Dyspepsia, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acid kind; Flatulency, loss of appetite, Bitter-Dum, Headache, Restlessness, Irritability, Anxiety, Langor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

Costiveness, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

Fever of all kinds, by restoring the blood to regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstructions in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure Rheumatism permanently in three weeks, and Gout in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

Dropsies of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most successfully on these important organs, and have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of Gravel.

Also Worms, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

Scurvy, Erysipelas, and Incontinent Sore, by the perfect purity which these Life Medicines give to the blood, and all the humors.

Scorbutic Eruptions, and Bad Complexions, by their alternative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all such eruptions, scaly, slow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of Salt Rheum, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. Common Colds and Influenza will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

Piles.—The original proprietor of these Medicines was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicines alone.

FEVER AND AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease; a cure by these Medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.

Bilious Fevers and Liver Complaints.—General Debility, Loss of Appetite, and Diseases of Females have been cured by these Life Medicines. The most beneficial results in cases of this description—King's Evil, and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains of the Colon, &c., are speedily cured.

Mercurial Diseases.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of mercury, will find these Medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparations of Sarsaparilla.

THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.

J. H. JOHNSON, Editor.

THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1861.

DAILY SESSION COMMONWEALTH.

TERMS.—FIFTY CENTS PER MONTH. If any person should pay for a longer time than the session continues, the Tri-weekly Commonwealth will be sent long enough to make it up.

The TRI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH is published at Four DOLLARS per year, or Forty CENTS per month.

The WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH is Two DOLLARS per year.

The DAILY COMMONWEALTH can be had at the counting-room at Five CENTS per single copy, or at THREE DOLLARS per hundred. Orders should be left at the office, or with the reporters, on the day before the publication of the particular number of the paper which is wanted.

From the movements already made by the secessionists in the present Legislature, we feel warranted in saying that that party will not support any measure for arming the State that does not come up to all their views on the subject. It is plainly evident that the mere matter of arming the State is not all they want. They desire to have the control of the arms after they are purchased. In this they cannot be gratified. It would be far better for this Legislature to vote for an ordinance of secession at once, than to put arms in the hands of those who are determined to engineer Kentucky out of the Union at all hazards. Such a course would be cheaper, and it is manifest to all who have watched the policy of secession, that it would not be much less direct to secession than the plan of putting guns and money into the hands of secessionists.

Since the late overwhelming verdict of the people of Kentucky in favor of the Union, the conspirators have despaired of peaceable secession. They have, (if we may credit the report of certain Tennessee emissaries who have been here, returned and reported,) determined to take Kentucky out by force. Such an attempt on their part will be the signal for civil war. The Union men of Kentucky are composed of sterner stuff than are the "secessionists" of Tennessee and Virginia. The Union party of this Legislature will not appropriate a dollar for arming the State, unless they guard such appropriation in such a manner as to secure it against the possibility of being used against their party.

We believe there is a strong belief among the Union men of Kentucky, and growing stronger every day, that the less this Legislature appropriates for arming the State the better.

Look at this.—The Federal Court is now in session. Suppose the Grand Jury should indict a citizen of Kentucky for an offense against the laws of the United States, and the Marshal should attempt to arrest the offender but is overpowered by a mob. Now, if the Federal Government, through any of its departments, should call the military to the aid of the civil law, Governor Magoffin would resist such a movement with the State Guard, since he forbids any movement by the United States upon the soil of Kentucky for any purpose whatever, whether that purpose be peaceable or hostile. This is another evidence of the intention of the secessionists to produce a conflict with the Federal Government, and put Kentucky practically out of the Union.

Let us see if all this be not strictly true. If the Federal Government should attempt to send its sick, disabled soldiers to the Military Asylum at Harrodsburg; if it should attempt to send soldiers to the Newport Barracks; if the Custom-house at Louisville should be endangered, and the General Government should attempt to send the military of the United States to protect it, Governor Magoffin is pledged to resist all such movements, though strictly constitutional, with the State Guard. This is necessarily the meaning of the proclamation, since he forbids any movement upon the soil of Kentucky for any purpose whatever. Here, then, is a bold effort to precipitate a conflict with the United States, and bring war at all costs.

MR. CRITTENDEN FOR CONGRESS.—Monday last was county court day in Scott and Jessamine counties, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather there was a large attendance of the people at both their county seats. Meetings were held at both places, and the Hon. John J. Crittenden was unanimously nominated as the candidate for Congress in this district at the ensuing election. The preference thus expressed by the counties of Scott and Jessamine is felt by the Union men of every county in the district, and on the 20th of June next John J. Crittenden will be chosen the Representative of the Ashland district to the Congress of the United States by a majority that will be as gratifying to him as it will be to the friends of peace and Union throughout the entire length and breadth of the land.

A man named Underhill, a violent abolitionist, and known as the correspondent of the New York Tribune, was taken from the mail train at Harper's Ferry, between 11 and 12 o'clock, and placed in the encampment. Underhill, when taken, was returning from the Wheeling Convention of Western Virginia. His arrest and detention was made by the Virginia military authorities.

Harper's Magazine for June may be had at S. C. Bull's book store. It is a good number, containing much interesting reading.

Letter from Col. Crittenden.

The following letter will be read with interest, and its sentiments endorsed by every loyal Kentuckian. The suggestions in the last paragraph are worthy the consideration of the Legislature:

FRANKFORT, May 19, 1861.

Major-General Simon Buckner:

DEAR SIR—I have been in a most flattering manner elected to the command of a regiment in the State Guard. I have been commissioned as a Colonel, and though I have not qualified, I have accepted the position. With much anxiety, I have watched the growth of a manifest distrust of the State Guard. This distrust is shown in the conversations which any one may hear on the streets; is shown in the newspapers, and most important of all, is shown by the Legislature of Kentucky. Conscious of my own entire loyalty to my country and to her institutions, and feeling that my State is entitled to the perfect confidence and obedience of all her citizens, because no man has a right to question her patriotism, her courage, or her intelligence, I have been willing to engage in any service she might require of her sons.

I look upon the State Guard as being what the very name imports, viz: A guard for the protection of the honor and all the interests of Kentucky.

I look upon the position which Kentucky has taken in these most trying times, with pride, and as far as I can, will gladly aid her to maintain it. For I think she has shown a steadfast allegiance to our Federal Government, in rejecting the doctrine of secession. I think she has shown a devoted love for all her countrymen by refusing to let her sons engage in this fratricidal strife.

When, therefore, I accepted the Colonelcy of a regiment in the State Guard, I expected to be sustained by the strong arm of Kentucky. Instead of confidence, suspicion and distrust rest upon the State Guard. This distrust, unmerited I think, must be removed, or the Guard can do no service to the State, notwithstanding the ability with which you, sir, have labored in its organization and discipline. I am unwilling to be the soldier of any faction; I am willing, I am anxious to be the soldier of Kentucky.

In my humble judgment the State owes it to justice and her own dignity, either to disband the State Guard, or so to organize it that she can bestow upon it her entire confidence.

Respectfully, your friend,

T. L. CRITTENDEN.

Yesterday the committee on Military Affairs asked to be discharged from the further consideration of a petition from sundry citizens of Paducah, asking for an appropriation of money for the purpose of erecting a fort at that point. This elicited a spirited debate between Messrs. Whitaker and Rousseau, who favored the discharge of the committee, and Senator Johnson, who opposed it with earnestness and ability.

The speeches of Senators Whitaker and Rousseau were the speeches of the session, and as we know it is the desire of many members of the Union party that they should be published, we refrain from indicating the line of policy advocated by them. Should they, or either of them, accede to the earnest desire of their friends, our columns will be at their disposal. The committee will probably be discharged.

SEE WHAT OUR GOVERNOR IS TRYING TO DO.—The secessionists have, up to this time, been foiled in their devilish attempts to drag Kentucky into war and revolution. They denounced the doctrine of neutrality. They now, through the Governor, are attempting to so twist and turn that doctrine so as to produce, at all hazards, a conflict with the Federal Government. The Governor issues his proclamation, and threatens the United States. He is attempting to overthrow the authority of the United States in the State of Kentucky. In plain English, his proclamation is a bold, imprudent and dictatorial scheme to place Kentucky beyond the jurisdiction of the United States, and place her practically out of the Union.

A DICTATOR.—Notwithstanding Kentucky is in the Union, and notwithstanding the Constitution of the United States is in full force here, Gov. Magoffin, "Commander-in-Chief of all the military forces of this State, on land or water," boldly defies the Federal Government, with all its power, against making any movement upon the soil of Kentucky for any purpose whatever; and that, too, notwithstanding such a movement might be consistent with our honor and our peace. He forbids the United States, or any of the States, from aiding us in putting down even a servile insurrection.

The Danville Tribune says that among the votes cast for the Union ticket, in Boyle county, was that of Mr. John Spears, Sr., one of the few surviving soldiers of the revolution, who remain to look with surprise and sorrow upon the madness of the people who wish to tear down the proud temple of liberty which the revolution, with its hardships and bloodshed, was fought. Mr. Spears was present in the ranks at the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. He is now 94 years old, and a hale, hearty old patriot.

Gov. Magoffin stood by and permitted a regiment to be organized in this State for the avowed purpose of joining the Confederate army and warring upon the Union, of which Kentucky is a part; and now, by his proclamation, he announces his determination to resist, with the State Guard, "any movement upon the soil of Kentucky," by the Government of the Union, to enlist Kentuckians in support of that Union.

The Norfolk correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch states that the small-pox is raging among the troops at Fortress Monroe, and adds that the physicians of that city are desirous of volunteering their services. Letters from the troops in the fortress, published in the northern papers, make no mention of any disease prevailing among them.

We are authorized to announce Capt. THOMAS BUFORD as a Union candidate to represent the county of Woodford in the lower branch of our next Legislature.

Proclamation of the Governor.

Whereas, numerous applications have been made to me from many good citizens of this Commonwealth, praying me to issue a proclamation forbidding the march of any forces of this or any other State or States over our soil, to make an apprehended attack upon the Federal forces at Cairo, in Illinois, or to disturb any otherwise the peaceful attitude of Kentucky with reference to the deplorable war now waging between the United States and the Confederate States. And whereas, numerous applications from like good citizens of this Commonwealth have also been made to me, praying me to issue a proclamation forbidding the occupation of any post or place, or the march over our sacred soil by any force of the United States for any purpose. And whereas, it is made fully evident, by every indication of public sentiment, that it is the determined purpose of the good people of Kentucky to maintain, with courageous firmness, the fixed position of self-defense, proposing or intending no invasion or aggression towards any other State or States, forbidding the quartering of troops upon her soil by either of the hostile sections, but simply standing aloof from an unnatural, horrid, and lamentable strife, for the existence of which Kentucky, neither by thought, word, nor act, is in any wise responsible. And whereas, the policy thus recommended by so many of my fellow-citizens of all political leanings, is, in my judgment, wise, peaceful, safe, and honorable, and the most likely to preserve peace and amity between the neighboring bordering States on both shores of the Ohio river, and protect Kentucky, generally, from the ravages of a deplorable war. And whereas, the arms distributed to the "State Guard," composed as it is of gentlemen equally conscientious and honest, who entertain the opinions of both parties, are not to be used against the Federal Government nor the Confederate States, but to resist and prevent encroachments upon her soil, her rights, her honor, and her sovereignty by either of the belligerent parties, and to preserve the peace, safety, prosperity, and happiness and strict neutrality of her people, in the hope she may soon have an opportunity to become a successful mediator between them; and in order to remove the unfounded distrust and suspicions of purposes to force Kentucky out of the Union, at the point of the bayonet—which may have been strongly and wickedly engendered in the public mind in regard to my own position and that of the "State Guard,"

Now, therefore, I, BERTH MAGOFFIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and Commander-in-Chief of all her military forces, on land or water, have issued this my proclamation, hereby notifying and warning all other States, whether separate or united, and especially the "United States" and the "Confederate States," that I solemnly forbid any movement upon the soil of Kentucky or the occupation of any post, place, or place whatever within the lawful boundary and jurisdiction of this State, by any of the forces under the orders of the States aforesaid, for any purpose whatever, until authorized by invitation or permission of the Legislative and Executive authorities of this State previously granted. I also hereby especially and solemnly forbid all good citizens of this Commonwealth, whether incorporated in the "State Guard" or otherwise, making any warlike or hostile demonstrations whatever against any of the authorities aforesaid, earnestly requesting all citizens, civil and military, to be obedient hereto; to be obedient to the laws and lawful orders of both the civil and military authorities; to remain when off military duty quietly and peaceably at their homes, pursuing their wonted lawful avocations; to refrain all words and acts likely to engender hot blood and provoke collision; to pursue such a line of wise conduct as will promote peace and tranquility, and a sense of safety and security, and thus keep far away from our beloved land and people the deplorable calamities of invasion; but at the same time earnestly counseling my fellow-citizens of Kentucky to make prompt and efficient preparations to assume the armor and attitude prescribed by the paramount and supreme law of self-defense—and strictly of self-defense alone; praying Almighty God to have us evermore in his holy keeping, and to preserve us in peace, prosperity, and security forever.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my name, and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at Frankfort, this 20th day of May, A. D. 1861, and in the 69th year of the Commonwealth.

By the Governor:
THOS. B. MONROE, JR., Sec'y of State.
May 21, 1860-wktr3m.

The Missouri military bill is clearly unconstitutional. It only requires the troops to swear allegiance to the Constitution of the State. This is an open and direct violation of section 33, article 2, of the Constitution of Missouri. It requires the State Guards to disarm all other armed bodies in the State, including the United States troops. Its whole spirit is in violation of the Federal and State constitutions.

Our readers have observed that we have placed a far different construction upon the Governor's recent proclamation than some of our Union contemporaries. We hope that the latter are right, and that we are in error. But we are still of opinion that that dictatorial document is an ingenious instrument by which to produce a conflict with the General Government. Time will show whether or not we are in error.

A Washington correspondent says that "Extra Billy Smith," who has been some days in Washington, is suspected of being a spy. If it is true, the Smith family stands a chance of losing an extra Billy.

We are authorized to announce Capt. THOMAS BUFORD as a Union candidate to represent the county of Woodford in the lower branch of our next Legislature.

New York, May 21.

A special dispatch to the Commercial says the Governor of Delaware has appointed Dupont Major General of that State. He is a graduate of West Point, and has seen service. He is the celebrated manufacturer of gunpowder.

The Commercial also learns from authentic source, that the extra session of Congress will be short; business will be compactly arranged and presented. According to present appearances, almost perfect unanimity will prevail. An impetus will be given the loyal sentiment, and everything done that can to bring the contest to a speedy termination.

Important information just obtained leads to the firm belief that England and France will concur with our government in the steps taken to reassert its authority. This is also the case with all the diplomatic representatives in Washington. A cordial understanding exists with them all.

It will be found that Lord Lyons will fully support the views expressed in the instructions to Mr. Adams.

Private dispatches from Helena announce the explosion of the steamer Kentucky yesterday, and not less than twenty lives, including both clerks, were lost, but no particulars are given. The Kentucky was a Memphis and Vicksburg mail packet. Value $30,000.

Private dispatches also announce a blockade at Memphis, prohibiting the passage of all upward bound boats.

Washington, May 21.

A special dispatch to the New York Post says: A force of 1,000 rebel troops left Harper's Ferry yesterday for Crampton, Va., to resist the passage of Federal troops from Wheeling.

Indianapolis, May 21.

The report from Martin county, Indiana, last night about secessionists committing depredations seems to be a mistake. There is however a band of desperadoes in that county who have been plundering and threatening the lives of citizens, and we learn this morning from good authority that four men were arrested at Dover Hill yesterday by a mob of 100 men.

Baltimore, May 21.

The New York second regiment passed through the city to-day, and were well received and cheered in all parts of the city.

Hon. Chauncy Shaffer made a speech to the New York seventh regiment to-day, invoking them by no means to return to their homes before the close of the war. It is understood they will be guided in the matter by Gen. Scott, and are willing to remain if there are any prospects of a speedy opening of the campaign.

What is Martial Law?

At the present crisis, the significance of a term so much used, and with so little accurate sense of its meaning, becomes unusually important.

Bouvier defines martial law as "a code established for the government of the army and navy of the United States," whose principal rules are to be found in the articles of war, prescribed by act of Congress. But Chancellor Kent says this definition applies only to military law, while martial law is quite a distinct thing, and is founded on paramount necessity, and proclaimed by a military chief.

Martial law is generally and vaguely held to be a suspension of all ordinary civil rights and process—and as such, approximates closely to a military despotism. It is an arbitrary law, originating in emergencies. In times of extreme peril to the State, either from without or within, the public welfare demands extraordinary measures. And martial law being proclaimed, signifies that the operation of the ordinary legal delays of justice is suspended by the military power, which has for the time become supreme.

CHANGING THE CABINET.—The Savannah (Ga.) Republican says: "We have good reason to believe that, if not already done, a change will soon be effected in the Cabinet of President Davis. It will extend to the War and Attorney-General's offices, and it is understood that Mr. Walker and Mr. Benjamin are to change places."

JUDGE ADAMS.—At the request, and on the authority of several gentlemen from Greensburg, the Frankfort Yeoman denies the statement which we published concerning this person. Our information was had in the town of Greensburg, through which we were passing, and our authority was such as could not be doubted. Not one individual, but twenty, informed us of the facts, which were matters of public notoriety. A gentleman who was in Greensburg shortly after the publication of the paragraph, assures us of its substantial correctness. We believe it to be true, and that the Yeoman has been misled by an unscrupulous and interested informant.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, designed to be the most effective Alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish its cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA, OR THE DOUBLEDURE, RHEUMATISM, PESSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders accompanied in the bad. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this purgative of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overturned.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

SOMETHING NEW!

Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, Photographs, and Ivorytypes.

H. L. GOODWIN,

TAKE pleasure in informing the public that he has returned to Frankfort, and taken the Gallery of C. A. Clarke, adjoining the Telegraph Office, and that he would be pleased to wait on those wishing perfect Likenesses of themselves or friends.

He is confident he will be able to please the most fastidious in any kind of picture they may desire, from a life-size portrait to the smallest Daguerreotype or Ambrotype. Also, Daguerreotypes of deceased persons enlarged to the size of Life and Colored in Oil, and satisfaction given.

I am also prepared to make those gems of Photography, the Daguerreotype, which is truly the most durable small picture yet produced.

The Ivorytype, (made only at this Gallery,) is acknowledged by all to be the most beautiful style of Photographic pictures ever presented to the public. In brilliancy of tone and color, delicacy of finish, correctness of likeness, and durability, it is far superior to the best miniature on Ivory.

Bellingham's celebrated Stimulating Ointment for the Whiskers and Hair.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American public, the above justly celebrated and much-prized article.

THE STIMULATING OINTMENT is prepared by Dr. C. P. Bellingham, an eminent physician of London, and warranted to bring out a thick set of WHISKERS OR A MUSTACHE in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure baldness and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn or tow hair dark, and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth, and flexible. The "Ointment" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Ointment" (warranted to have the desired effect) will be sent to any who desire it, by mail (direct), securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1 18.
